FOSTERING CONTACTS FOR INNOVATIVE COMPANIES

Bpifrance created the EuroQuity service in 2008 to put growing companies in contact with partners for their development, in particular with investors.

Because we're convinced that your business's exposure and reputation are key to finding new partners, EuroQuity.com provides you with the means to gather all of your company's points of interest within an ecosystem that is unique and alive.

The 'follows' and 'likes' that you receive, the certifications that you join and the content you produce bring you ever greater visibility and recognition. Your scores increase and places you in front, where your new partners and investors are waiting.
